E&A HR bags five awards at World HRD Congress

L&T Electrical & Automation (E&A) won accolades at the 5th Employer Branding Awards organized by the World HRD Congress on February 12 in Mumbai. Ranked an overall 10th, it bagged three awards in individual categories - 'Best HR Strategy in line with Business', 'Innovation in Recruitment' and 'Excellence in Training' - under Employer Branding. The other two awards were won for Recruitment and Staffing Best in Class (RASBIC) Award for Innovation in Recruitment and Shine HR Leadership Award for Best Learning and Development Strategy.

The jury comprising eminent industrialists and academicians conferred the awards and rankings upon organizations for various HR practices following a series of evaluations by the Academic Council, Committee and the Jury.

More than 450 organizations competed in various categories at the event that was organized with the objective of keeping constant focus on quality and encouraging the culmination of best practices.
